

Call for article for the Journal of Forest and Livelihoods, Vol 9 (1)

Specific guidelines for the authors to their research article:

Type of contribution: Contributors may consider two options: a) long articles (up to 6000 words), or should not exceed 15 pages including tables, figures, references, and abstracts and b) short technical communications (around 1500 words) or four printed pages. Specify the type of your contribution while submitting an article.

Paper Title: Paper title should be short, not exceeding 85 characters

Abstract and key words: Abstract is a short summary of the whole paper. Authors are required to include an abstract and it should not go to more than 200 words and a total of 5-7 key words. It should describe all essential facts of a scientific paper. Keywords must be Included and should not be the repeated words that are included in the title of the papers. Key words should be taken from the main body of the paper. The abstract is an important part of the paper and cited in world databases.

The text of the article should be divided into the following sections, if appropriate: Introduction, Materials and methods, Results, Discussion, Acknowledgments, References, tables, and figure legends. Introduction should outline the main reasons why the research was conducted; describe a brief review of literature consisting of refereed periodicals, journals and books, and the goal of the authors.

Language: Articles should be submitted in English (British), bear in mind that there should be uniformity in language use.

Mode of submission: Articles should be submitted in electronic form in a given e-mail address.

Formatting: Standard size of paper (A4 format), type size 12 font in Times New Roman, 2.5cm margins on each edge of the page. The heading levels should be properly identified.

Author details: give full name, organizational affiliation and position, and email address. In the case of multiple authors, identify the corresponding author.

References: All publications cited in the text should be given in a reference list following the text. Authors are strongly advised to follow the standard scientific conventions of referencing and should be formatted in the following way:
